Discover the Right Solutions for YOU

- Are you worried about choosing the Wrong Career?
- Don't Waste Time pursuing something you'd hate!
- Take the Color Assessment to Improve Your Skills

Janice Dru FIND YOUR TRUE COLOR

Janice Dru graduated from Princeton University, publishing a 100+ page thesis on "Committees, Choices, and Commitments" with research on differences in gender and race, preferences, and motivations to participate. Her experience spans over a decade in corporate environments across multiple verticals to identify issues with teams of different sizes in sales, marketing, business development, and other areas.

But I've already taken a personality test and chosen my career...

Some clients may have already invested in taking personality assessments and deciding their career path, which is just ONE component of moving forward with your work life. Our programs deliver an immediate and lasting positive impact on YOU by reaching deeper than one-time tests and time-bound decisions. Knowing YOUR COLOR and how it relates to OTHER COLORS will give you lasting skills and knowledge to work with future colleagues and offer your company value.

"Dynamic, high content and engaging! [The Color Q is] showing business leaders how to leverage their strengths and use them to manage more effectively."

– Peter Tanous, President,
Lynx Investment Advisory

"Awareness of the variety of leadership styles was a career-altering event."

– K. O'Hare, Partner, Deloitte

"The Color Q phenomenon is sweeping through our organization!"

– S. Webb, SVP, ABN AMRO
